

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

POLICY NO: 4

STAFF DISCIPLINARY POLICY

Rationale

The governing body of Peaslake Free School is required to set out a disciplinary procedure and rules. This procedure has been negotiated with trade unions and has been approved by the Governing body.

Many potential problems and difficulties can and should be resolved informally. The employee will have every opportunity to discuss the concern, to make any comments and to record them if desired. The Principal should be able to demonstrate that clear advice and help have been given to the employee at this informal stage and will have a record of any reprimand or informal warning given as part of the normal managerial functions.

The formal procedure is intended to be used for problems that are serious in themselves, or serious because they remain unresolved after informal steps have not achieved a satisfactory solution.

Aim and Principles

A disciplinary procedure is necessary for promoting fairness and order in the treatment of individuals, and is designed to help and encourage all employees to achieve and maintain high standards of conduct and job performance. Schools should have clear standards of behaviour for staff to observe, should notify staff of this procedure and take account of appropriate terms and conditions of employment.

This procedure applies to:

- All employees of the school, including the Principal
- Staff in units or bases that are attached to a school (e.g. Nursery)

The procedure does not apply to:

- Peripatetic staff who are centrally employed by the LA or DofE
- Employees of external contractors and providers of services (e.g. contract cleaners)
- Parents or other members of the community engaged in school activities on a voluntary or non-paid basis.

The disciplinary procedure is concerned with handling allegations of misconduct and gross misconduct. Where disciplinary allegations appear to be linked to sickness (including work-related stress), the ill-health procedure may be appropriate. Where there is concern about competence or poor performance, the Performance Management procedure should be used.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

All staff must have ready access to this procedure on request and are entitled to complete confidentiality in relation to personal, professional and medical information.

No disciplinary action will be taken against an employee until the case has been fully investigated. In certain circumstances it may be deemed appropriate to suspend the individual from all school duties on full pay and without prejudice during investigations.

Before any of the 4 stages (described below) in the procedure the employee will:

- be advised in writing of the nature of the complaint against him or her
- have the right to be accompanied by his/her trade union representative, his/her professional association representative or work colleague
- have a right of appeal when a penalty has been imposed.

This procedure has four levels of sanction, depending on the seriousness of the misconduct:

Stage 1	Formal oral warning
Stage 2	Written warning
Stage 3	Final written warning
Stage 4	Dismissal

The Commissioning Manager will determine the stage at which this procedure will be entered. Stage 4 will normally be entered only where gross misconduct is alleged or where an employee already has a 'live' final written warning. A finding of gross misconduct will result in dismissal without notice, otherwise dismissal will be with contractual notice. The exception to the norm here is where an employee already has a live Stage 1 or Stage 2 warning and is then found to have committed an act of misconduct which, though short of gross misconduct, is so serious that it would alone have merited a Stage 3 warning. In these circumstances, a jump from Stage 1 or Stage 2 to Stage 4 might be appropriate.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

Definition and Separation of Roles

There are several distinct roles to be taken during any disciplinary proceedings. It is essential that they are clearly defined and that the person carrying out the role is clearly identified.

- The Commissioning Manager

This is the person who has the authority to decide whether a complaint or incident is sufficiently serious to warrant a formal investigation under this procedure. The Commissioning Manager will appoint an Investigating Officer to carry out the investigation, and will also be the person who will conduct, if necessary, the disciplinary hearing and make the judgement in the light of all the available evidence.

The Commissioning Manager will normally be the Principal. If the investigation is about the actions of the Principal, the Commissioning Manager will normally be the Chair of Governors.

- The Investigating Officer/Presenting Officer

This is the person who is charged by the Commissioning Manager to carry out an investigation into the complaint or incident. He/she will consider all of the available evidence, both written and oral, and will produce a written report to the Commissioning Manager. The Investigating Officer will, if necessary, interview witnesses and others in order to produce a balanced report that can lead to a fair judgement.

The Investigating Officer will conclude his/her report with a view on the balance of probabilities about what happened. He/she must not, however, take a view about whether a disciplinary hearing is appropriate or whether a disciplinary sanction is justified: both of these decisions can only be taken by the Commissioning Manager.

The Investigating officer is likely to be a member of the School's Leadership Team or Governing Body. Care will be taken to ensure that the Investigating Officer is able to carry out the investigation impartially.

If the Principal has to carry out the investigation, then he/she cannot also be the Commissioning Manager: that role would need to be taken by the Chair of Governors, and any disciplinary hearing that might follow would need to be conducted by a panel of governors (not the Principal).

Whether the Commissioning Manager is the Principal or the Chair of Governors, it is always possible to appoint an Investigating Officer from outside the school, possibly from the staff of the local authority or from an independent source.

- The Person or Panel who conducts the Hearing

Normally, the Principal is the Commissioning Manager and will conduct the Hearing. If the Chair of Governors is the Commissioning Manager, then the Hearing will be conducted by a Disciplinary panel of 3 governors, not by the

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

Chair alone. Whilst there is no requirement, legal or otherwise, to exclude the Chair from the Disciplinary Panel, it is likely that the Chair's relationship with the Principal will be too close to ensure demonstrable impartiality. It is, therefore, recommended that the Disciplinary Panel comprise 3 governors other than the Chair.

In the case of a hearing that is considering dismissal, it is expected that the Principal will have been the Commissioning Manager and will conduct the hearing (unless he/she is the subject of the hearing). Statutory guidance does, however, list the possible exceptions to this rule for a dismissal hearing. In any of the following circumstances, a dismissal hearing may be conducted by a Disciplinary Panel of governors:

- where the Principal is unwilling to perform the function and was appointed to the Headship of the school prior to 1 April 2004
- where the Principal has been directly involved in earlier disciplinary stages, either as Investigating Officer or witness [but the Principal may conduct a dismissal hearing if he/she has been the Commissioning Manager at an earlier stage]
- where the Principal is subject to suspension; or disciplinary or capability procedures, including investigation; or a disciplinary sanction
- where the DofE has made formal representations to the Chair of Governors on the grounds of serious concerns about the performance of the Principal.

In circumstances where the Principal as Commissioning Manager does not hear the case, the Principal may jointly present the case with the Investigating Officer.

- Expert Advice at the Hearing

At any disciplinary hearing, the Principal or Disciplinary Panel may be advised throughout the hearing, including the subsequent deliberations leading to a judgement, by a person with suitable qualifications or experience in employment law.

At any hearing where dismissal is to be considered, the D of E will be invited to send an adviser. The school must send all of the papers for the hearing to the relevant HR Manager no later than the date on which the papers are sent to the employee. This provision applies whether or not the school subscribes to the Personnel Advice service.

Whilst it is not necessary to have expert advice at every disciplinary hearing, schools that subscribe to the Personnel Advice service should seek advice case-by-case.

- The Employee and the Employee's Representative

The employee is the member of staff who is the subject of the complaint or allegation.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

At every stage of the formal disciplinary procedure, the employee is entitled to be accompanied by and represented by a work colleague or his/her trade union/professional association representative (and by no one else).

“Representation” does not mean that the employee may take a silent or passive role in disciplinary proceedings. He/she has a duty to take an active part in all stages of the proceedings unless there are exceptional circumstances that would prevent the employee’s participation.

- Witnesses

It is not necessary that every witness be present at a disciplinary hearing to answer questions but the Principal or Disciplinary Panel will need to assess the strength of the evidence differently if a witness is not present to answer questions. There are 3 considerations:

- Pupils/students and other children under 18 must never attend a disciplinary hearing
- Employees of the school may be instructed to attend a disciplinary hearing if required
- Adult witnesses who are not employees of the school may be asked to attend to answer questions but cannot be compelled to do so.

- The Note-Taker at a Disciplinary Hearing

A written record of the proceedings is essential at every disciplinary hearing. Where the proceedings are likely to be relatively short and straightforward, the record may be taken by the Principal or a member of the panel. Where the proceedings are likely to be lengthy or complicated and at every dismissal hearing, a separate note-taker should be engaged for the purpose. This is likely to be the Clerk to the Governors or a member of staff at the school who has played no part in the procedure up to that point. The note-taker will make a record of the hearing but not of the confidential deliberations to determine a judgement at the end of the hearing.

- Support for Participants

Involvement by anyone in disciplinary proceedings is likely to be stressful. The Commissioning Manager must consider how best to meet the school's duty of care both to employees and to pupils/students. In particular, consideration must be given to providing support to the alleged “victim(s)” (i.e. one who believes that they have suffered as a result of the employee’s actions that are now the subject of disciplinary proceedings) and to an employee who has been suspended, pending a disciplinary investigation.

In either case, the school should identify a member of staff who can provide impartial support which could include:

- regular information about the progress of the case

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

- advice on getting access to specialist counselling (which may include the school's employee assistance programme or the Principal's support service) or medical assistance
- information about significant developments at the school: this will be particularly important for an employee who is suspended.

The Supporter – who has a different role from that of the employee's trade union or professional association representative – should be briefed at the outset by the Commissioning Manager about his/her role. The Commissioning Manager should also inform the employee about the role of the Supporter.

Steps Leading to a Disciplinary Hearing

- Suspension

It is clearly acknowledged that suspension can have profound implications for an employee's life and career. The Principal and/or Chair of Governors will consult with expert advice before taking action. Suspension is always with normal pay and without prejudice to the employee. The power to suspend rests with the full governing body or the Principal (or the Chair, if suspending the Principal). The power to lift suspension rests only with the governing body. Suspension may be an appropriate step for the following reasons:

- To prevent a repetition of the alleged offence either for the sake of the pupils/students or to protect the employee
- Where the presence of the employee will hamper investigations.

Suspension is not automatic, whatever the allegation, and will, in any event, be reserved only for serious allegations.

Where a serious allegation has come to light but there is no corroborating evidence at the outset, consideration will be given to the following short-term alternatives to suspension:

- Working from home
- Paid leave of absence
- Working in a more closely supervised environment.

Such alternatives will be used for no more than one week to allow time for a preliminary assessment of the evidence that is readily available. Where the allegation concerns safeguarding children, a risk assessment must be discussed with the DoF Designated Officer. Once this assessment has been made, the decision as to whether to suspend can be taken.

Wherever possible, a meeting with the employee and his/her representative will be held, at which the allegations and the reasons for considering suspension will be discussed. Discussion will include the arrangements for keeping in contact with the employee, including on-going advice and support during the period of suspension and for appealing against the suspension.

If the period of suspension is brief only, leading quickly to reinstatement or to a disciplinary hearing under this procedure, an appeal against suspension will not be necessary. However, in a number of cases, investigation of the allegations, particularly by outside agencies, may be lengthy. In such cases, arrangements for reviewing the suspension and appealing against it will be clear from the outset. Since it will normally be the Principal who has imposed the suspension (and since the Principal alone may not lift a suspension), it would not be appropriate for the Principal alone to hear such an appeal. A panel of three Governors will hear an appeal against suspension. If the circumstances that led to suspension under the above criteria no longer obtain, the panel will make a recommendation to the governing body that the suspension be lifted.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

- Allegations about Safeguarding Children (Child Protection)

Allegations about the safeguarding and protection of children will be handled in accordance with statutory guidance and procedures relating to Safeguarding Children.

These procedures are not limited to allegations involving “significant harm/risk of significant harm”. Any allegation that an employee or volunteer has:

- behaved in a way that has, or may have, harmed a child
- possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child
- behaved towards a child in a way that indicates that he/she is unsuitable to work with children must be dealt with in accordance with procedures.

The role of the D of E Designated Officer is crucial in handling all allegations of this kind (not just in relation to schools). The Designated Officer has a statutory duty to ensure that allegations about safeguarding are handled properly and expeditiously.

The key points for a Commissioning Manager – either the Principal or the Chair of Governors – will follow are:

- Read and understand section 10 “Allegations against those working with children” of the HSCB Child Protection Procedures – March 2007 (a copy is held in every school)
- Inform the Designated Officer within one working day of any allegation that comes to the school’s attention and that meet the criteria above, the information will include the name of the employee and the name, address and date of birth of the pupil(s)/student(s), where relevant
- Whilst a preliminary assessment of the available evidence can be made in order to inform the referral no attempt will be made to carry out an investigation
- A strategy meeting, normally arranged within 2 working days of the allegation, will determine whether the allegation should be investigated by the police or by some other agency or by the school under its disciplinary procedure
- If the matter is handed back to the school, whether at the first strategy meeting or at some later stage, the school will take account of the recommendations of the strategy meeting and liaise with the Designated Officer about the next steps.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

- The Investigation

Alleged instances of misconduct will be acted upon promptly. Following a complaint or allegation, it will, in many cases, be clear that a formal investigation is required. However, in some cases, a preliminary assessment of the readily available evidence will be appropriate to determine what has happened and whether a formal investigation is required. Once a decision has been made, normally by the Principal, that a formal investigation is needed, the employee will be informed in writing of the nature of the complaint.

The first stage of the process will be to conduct a formal impartial investigation of the alleged misconduct, in order to establish the facts as far as possible and whether or not there is a case to answer.

If, from the outset, there is a suspicion of child abuse or such a suspicion arises during the course of the school investigation, the investigation must be put on hold and the Local Authority Designated Officer.

The employee will be informed in writing of the nature of the complaint and receive copies of any letters or documents, which led the Commissioning Manager to believe an investigation was necessary. Normally this will occur at the outset of the investigation except where the Commissioning Manager believes that the conduct of the investigation might thereby be prejudiced. In those circumstances the employee will be informed at the earliest suitable time.

Where the complaint or allegation concerns the Principal, the Chair of Governors will seek expert advice.

- Conducting the Investigation

The Investigating Officer will impartially investigate thoroughly the facts of the matter, including the employee's version of events. The employee will be informed that he/she has the right to be accompanied by his/her trade union representative or a work colleague at an investigatory interview. Any information gained by the Investigating Officer when questioning the employee will be noted and will be presented in any subsequent disciplinary proceedings.

The investigation will be completed as quickly as is reasonably possible in the circumstances after the employee has been informed of the investigation

All those questioned will be told that if their evidence is to be accepted, it will need to be in either the form of a signed written statement and that the employee concerned will receive a copy, or by oral testimony at a formal hearing attended by the employee affected. Those completing a written statement may be required to attend. During an investigation, it may be necessary to question a large number of people, not all of whom will be called to give evidence.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

When statements are taken, the dates and any names quoted should be written out in full. All written statements should be signed by the interviewee with the date of the interview.

Evidence from staff must be in the form of written statements.

In cases involving sexual misconduct or harassment a governor of the same gender as the person allegedly offended against will be brought in to assist any investigation.

- Statements from Pupils

This is a delicate area where the search for truth will be conducted in such a way as to avoid causing emotional harm to the pupil whose evidence is required. Care will be taken to ensure that the pupil does not, as far as possible, feel intimidated by the process. This is particularly true for a pupil who might have been the subject of the alleged misconduct.

An important requirement for the protection of children is that children should not be interviewed more than once. If, therefore, a child has already been interviewed by the police or by a social care agency in the course of an investigation into the same or similar allegations, then the interview statements will be requested from the other agency and used in the school's investigation.

Where a formal investigation is underway, the parent/carer of the pupil will always be informed and invited to attend the interview with their child. The parent/carer will be informed that an incident is being investigated and that the pupil's evidence may be used if it proves necessary to hold a formal disciplinary hearing. The pupil will not be required to attend the hearing to give evidence in person.

Where the Investigating Officer is not well-known to the pupil, for example, if the Investigating Officer is from outside the school, consideration should be given to asking the school's Designated Senior Person (DSP) for Child Protection to carry out this part of the investigation. The point here is that the pupil should feel able to speak frankly and, as far as is possible, in a situation that is not intimidating. The DSP will have received specialist training that will assist the search for the truth.

In any event, when interviewing pupils, the Investigating Officer should be accompanied by a second adult, whose role is to ensure that a complete and accurate record is taken.

The Investigating Officer, taking into account the age and capabilities of the pupil, will ask the pupil to write down an account of what happened. Where this is not practicable, the investigating officer will write the account for the pupil and check carefully that the account accurately records what the pupil wishes to say. It is likely to be particularly helpful for the Investigating Officer to prepare questions in advance.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

The Investigating Officer, in questioning the pupil, will aim to seek clarification of what the pupil saw and experienced. Leading questions must be avoided, but it is important to record the pupil's account of what happened, where and when and who else might have been present during the incident under investigation.

The pupil's account must, like any witness statement, indicate the time, date and place at which the account was written plus the names and roles of all those present at the interview.

- Financial Irregularity

If a case involves alleged financial irregularity, corruption or fraud, Internal Audit must be contacted at the earliest possible opportunity and kept informed, without alerting the employee at this stage. At this stage, consideration will be given to police involvement and Internal Audit must be consulted before a decision is made. Internal Audit will determine whether the matter should be referred to the police.

- Misuse of School Computers and Allied Equipment

If there are suspicions that an employee is misusing school computers (e.g. by accessing or downloading inappropriate material), the Principal will carry out an initial assessment of the circumstances, without alerting the employee at this stage. The D of E can advise on how to get equipment removed and examined for evidence. The LADO will determine whether the matter should be referred to the police.

- Conclusion of the Investigation

The Investigating Officer will give a report of his/her investigation to the Commissioning Manager. If there is no evidence of misconduct, no further action will be taken and the employee will be informed of this in writing as soon as possible. The employee, who may be accompanied by a work colleague or his/her trade union or professional association representative, will be offered a debriefing meeting within a reasonable period.

If, after investigation, there is evidence of misconduct, the Commissioning Manager will arrange a disciplinary hearing.

Arranging a Disciplinary Hearing

There will be flexibility with dates when arrangements for a hearing are made, especially where a trade union or professional association representative is expected to attend. This flexibility will ensure the employee's fundamental right to representation.

The room to be used for the hearing should be large enough to accommodate the panel, both parties and a witness (if any). Tables are needed so that all present can write comfortably. The room should preferably be quiet and not overlooked. Two other rooms or quiet areas should be available for the two parties during adjournments.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

Hearings will normally be held during normal working hours, but, where this is not possible, the hearing will begin as soon as possible after the end of the school day.

The employee will receive at least ten working days' advance notice in writing, by recorded delivery or delivered by hand, of:

- the nature of the investigation and the report of the investigating officer
- the purpose of the hearing
- the complaints or allegations
- the stage reached in the procedure
- when and where the hearing will be conducted
- who will be attending, including witnesses to be called
- the right to be accompanied by a work colleague or trade union representative
- the requirement for confidentiality
- the requirement for the employee to provide, in at least 3 working days before the hearing, all documents that he/she intends to present at the hearing. The documents must be presented in hard copy and with sufficient copies for those, except witnesses, who will attend the hearing.

The persons hearing the case have to be impartial. They should not have been involved in any of the preparatory work, should have no detailed knowledge of the allegations prior to receiving the papers for the hearing.

Where a panel of governors is to hear the case, panel members will be sent all of the papers to be presented not earlier than 2 working days before the hearing. Panel members must not discuss any aspect of the case or the contents of the case papers with anyone, including other panel members, before the hearing.

Stages in the Formal Disciplinary Process

Normally, the formal disciplinary procedure will be entered in Stage 1, unless: the seriousness and nature of the alleged offence, any current disciplinary record or the nature of the job indicate otherwise.

However, in cases of alleged gross misconduct, the procedures will be entered at Stage 4.

At the outset, the employee will be advised in writing of the Stage being implemented. Any decision in this connection is open to subsequent challenge and must, therefore, be capable of justification. It is important, particularly in relation to serious allegations that may lead to dismissal, that the Commissioning Manager can demonstrate that he/she considered separately:

- whether he/she found all or some of the allegations proved and
- what level and type of sanction is appropriate.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

Stage 1 – Formal Oral Warning

Where the normal managerial practice fails to bring about the required improvement in conduct or the alleged misconduct demands formal action, a disciplinary hearing will be arranged by the Commissioning Manager. This may result in the employee being given a formal oral warning. He or she will be advised of the reason for the warning and that it is a stage of the formal disciplinary procedure. A brief note detailing the reasons for the oral warning will be given to the employee within three working days of the hearing and a copy kept by the Principal on the confidential personal file of the employee. The warning will be reviewed after a maximum of twenty term-time weeks for teaching staff and six months for support staff. If a satisfactory standard has been maintained, the disciplinary record will be spent and the employee so informed in writing. Any written reply from the employee must be kept with the note of the oral warning.

Stage 2 – Written Warning

If the conduct continues to be unsatisfactory, or where serious misconduct is suspected, a disciplinary hearing will be arranged by the Commissioning Manager. If the decision of the hearing finds the case proved, the employee will be given a written warning, which will give details of the finding against the employee. The hearing will normally be conducted by the Principal. The warning will be confirmed in writing within three working days giving details of the finding, the improvement required, the timescale and the assistance that will be given to improve. It will warn that action under Stage 3 will be considered if there is no satisfactory improvement and will advise of the right of appeal. A copy of the warning will be kept by the Principal on the confidential personal file of the employee. The warning will be reviewed after one calendar year or, exceptionally, another period specified in writing at the time of the warning. If a satisfactory standard has been maintained, the disciplinary record will be spent and the employee will be informed in writing.

Stage 3 – Final Written Warning

If there is a failure to improve, or there is a further instance of misconduct, or if the misconduct is found to be sufficiently serious to warrant only one written warning, a final written warning will be given to the employee after a disciplinary hearing. The hearing may be conducted by the Commissioning Manager. The warning will be confirmed in writing within three working days giving details of the findings of the hearing, the improvement required, the timescale, the assistance (if needed) that will be given to improve, will warn that dismissal may result if there is no satisfactory improvement and will advise of the right of appeal. A copy of the warning will be kept by the Principal on the confidential personal file of the employee. The warning will be reviewed after a period of one calendar year unless it covers serious categories of misconduct, when it may remain valid for a longer specified time. The time must be specified in writing at the time of the final warning. If a satisfactory standard has been maintained, the disciplinary record will be spent and the employee will be informed in writing.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

Stage 4 – Dismissal

Where allegations of gross misconduct or alleged repeated misconduct following a final warning are made, the Principal will normally conduct the hearing. A Disciplinary Panel of 3 governors will conduct the hearing, if the Principal is the subject of the allegation, or in the following circumstances:

- Where the Principal is unwilling to perform this function and was appointed to the Headship of the school prior to 1 April 2004
- Where the Principal has been directly involved in earlier disciplinary stages, either as investigator or as witness
- Where the Principal is subject to suspension; disciplinary procedures (in relation to conduct or capability), including investigation; or disciplinary sanction
- Where the D of E has made formal representations to the Chair of the Governing Body on grounds of serious concerns about the performance of the Principal.

If the case for dismissal is not established, a warning appropriate to the conduct may be issued.

If the decision is dismissal, then the employee will be informed immediately and advised of the right of appeal. The decision of the Principal (or Governing Body Disciplinary Panel), the reasons for it and the appeal arrangements will be confirmed in writing to the employee within three working days.

A copy of the letter will be sent to the Chair of Governors within 14 calendar days. The Chair of Governors will then formally confirm dismissal by letter to the employee.

Disciplinary Records

All schools are required to follow the statutory guidance in “Safeguarding Children and Safer Recruitment in Education” which came into force in January 2007. Paragraph 4.34 sets out the disclosure requirements when employment references are required and they include:

- “details of any disciplinary procedures the applicant has been subject to in which the disciplinary sanction is current
- details of any disciplinary procedures the applicant has been subject to involving issues related to the safety and welfare of children or young people, including any in which the disciplinary sanction has expired, and the outcome of those; and
- details of any allegations or concerns that have been raised about the applicant that relate to the safety and welfare of children or young people or behaviour towards children or young people, and the outcomes of those concerns, e.g. whether the allegations or concerns are investigated, the conclusion reached and how the matter was resolved.”

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

Disciplinary records will be kept on the employee's confidential personal file. It is important that a full record of the outcomes of any disciplinary process is kept so that accurate and fair information can be passed to prospective employers and others who legitimately request information for reference purposes.

Where a disciplinary sanction has expired – i.e. is “spent”, as described above – this means that the sanction cannot be used in the “totting-up” of sanctions that would take an employee from Stage 1 to Stage 2 to Stage 3 to Stage 4, even though the sanction might still need to be declared in a reference. However, there are 3 points to be made here:

- Spent disciplinary sanctions must only be declared to a prospective employer if the reason for the sanction concerns safeguarding children. Sanctions for other reasons will not be declared to prospective employers after they are spent
- The period during which a sanction is “live” may be extended if the employee is absent from work for a lengthy period. The duration of a sanction is to allow the employee to improve his/her conduct, a task which can only be achieved if the employee is at work.
- A sanction may be used in the totting-up process even after it is spent in circumstances where there is a repeat pattern of behaviour; e.g. an employee takes unauthorised leave on the last day of term, receives an appropriate warning, then repeats the offence as soon as the warning is spent.

Resignations and Compromise Agreements

Paragraphs 5.8 and 5.9 of “Safeguarding Children and Safer Recruitment in Education” sets out specific requirements in relation to handling allegations concerning the safety and welfare of children and young people. In summary these are:

Allegations concerning the safety and welfare of children must be followed to a conclusion even if the employee has resigned. The ex-employee will be given the same opportunity to participate in the investigation as he/she would have been as an employee, but the school must reach a conclusion whether or not the ex-employee co-operates in the proceedings.

“Compromise Agreement” is a legal device by which an employer agrees not to pursue a disciplinary process and an employee agrees to resign. A compromise agreement is often accompanied by an agreed reference for prospective employers. Where there are allegations concerning the safety and welfare of children, a compromise agreement must not be used.

Disciplinary Rules

The following lists are neither exclusive nor exhaustive and there are occasions when items in either list could be described as misconduct, serious misconduct or gross misconduct.

Misconduct

- Absenteeism and lateness, for example:
 - Failure to remain at the place of work during normal working hours without permission or sufficient cause for absence
 - Frequent failure to attend work punctually
 - Failure to notify the school immediately or as soon as reasonably practicable when absence is due to sickness
 - Failure to provide medical certificates in accordance with the conditions of service and current national regulations.

- Dishonesty – petty wrongs, for example:
 - Making unauthorised private telephone calls
 - Sending personal mail at the school's expense.

- Unauthorised or excessive use of school equipment such as telephones or computers
- Failure to comply with the school's policies on the use of e-mail, the internet or telephone
- Neglect of duty, for example:
 - Failure to adopt safe working practice/use protective equipment where required by law or management
 - Negligent use of property in such a way as is likely to cause serious damage or loss
 - Failure to discharge obligations placed on the employee by statute, contract of employment or reasonable instructions given by the Principal
 - Failure to exercise proper control or supervision of pupils or students
 - Failure to report any serious and known losses or damage to any property issued to or by the employee in connection with his/her employment.

- Abusive, threatening or offensive behaviour or language
- Victimisation of other employees or pupils
- Unlawful or unacceptable discrimination which is contrary to the schools adopted policy against other employees, pupils or members of the public
- Unauthorised disclosure information classified as confidential by the Authority or the Governors of the school

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

Gross Misconduct

- Dishonesty associated with place of work or job being undertaken, which may warrant dismissal:
 - Theft or misappropriation of property belonging to the County Council or any other Authority, a contractor, governors, trustees, another employee, pupil or other third party
 - Falsification of records or expenses claims
 - Demanding or accepting monies or other considerations as bribe for the use of school property, provision of school services or the showing of favour on behalf of the school
 - Falsification of any information given on an application form for employment in order to gain advantage, whether pecuniary or otherwise
 - Falsification of registration of pupils

- Serious misuse of school equipment (e.g. of a school computer for access to, or downloading of pornographic material)
- Criminal activities during the course of employment
- Wilful refusal to carry out a reasonable, lawful and safe instruction
- Wilful refusal to carry out the normal duties of the post
- Gross negligence in unreasonably failing to attend to or to carry out the duties of the post over a prolonged period
- Wilfully ignoring responsibilities/instructions thus placing other members of staff or pupils at risk of danger; for example, ignoring handling instructions/safety regulations in respect of radioactive materials
- Being unfit to perform duties associated with the post as a result of taking alcohol or drugs other than in accordance with medical advice
- Acts of violence in the course of employment, including physical violence towards other members of the school staff, parents, pupils, governors, members of the public or members/officers of the Authority
- Conduct incompatible with professional role and status such as:
 - acts of violence
 - sexual offences
 - racial offences
 - drug offences
 - sexual relations with pupils at the school or for whom the employee has any professional responsibility
 - improper communication, using information technology, with pupils/students, colleagues or other members of the school community

- Racial or sexual harassment of other employees, pupils or members of the public in the course of employment

Criminal Activities

If a member of staff is being investigated for any criminal activities, for example sexual offences, fraud or downloading pornographic material, or is going to be prosecuted for criminal activities, special considerations apply. Depending on the offence in question, the issue of gross misconduct may arise and it may be appropriate to suspend, pending further investigation.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

If an employee is suspected of committing any criminal offence at, or in connection with his/her work then the Head will normally inform the police. If an employee is charged by the police, he/she should normally be suspended with full pay.

Appeals

- Appeal against Stages 1 – 3

Any employee who wishes to appeal against any disciplinary decision should inform the Chair of Governors in writing within fourteen calendar days of receipt of that decision. A panel of different governors, no fewer than the number of governors who attended the original hearing and excluding the Principal, will hear the appeal. The decision of the appeal panel will be final and must be reported to the governing body.

- Appeal against Stage 4 – Dismissal

Any appeal arising as a result of a Stage 4 hearing, will be made in writing within fourteen calendar days of the receipt of a decision. The appeal will be to the governing body (with the exception of any governors previously involved). To be quorate the appeal panel must consist of at least the same number of governors as at the previous hearing.

At an appeal any disciplinary penalty imposed will be reviewed, but it cannot be increased.

At any appeal hearing the employee will enjoy the same rights as at any disciplinary hearing. The Principal is likely to be the Presenting Officer at an appeal hearing.

The Clerk to the Governing Body, or a suitably impartial person, will arrange all appeal hearings and inform all the parties concerned.

Whilst the appeal is a re-hearing of the original case, new evidence is permissible. If either party wishes to introduce new evidence, they should give notice to the other party at least ten working days before the appeal hearing. If either side produces new evidence at the appeal hearing, it is open to either side to request an adjournment for further investigation.

If new evidence of misconduct is produced at the appeal hearing, which would give rise to further disciplinary allegations, the allegations will be pursued at a new disciplinary interview, not at the appeal hearing.

If the recommendation for dismissal is not upheld, the governors may decide to issue a further warning or, in appropriate cases, to demote the employee rather than dismiss. Demotion involves a change in the employee's contract that requires his/her consent to the new arrangement.

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

The employee will be informed immediately at the conclusion of the hearing and the Clerk to the Governing Body will confirm the decision of the Appeal Panel/Governing Body in writing to the employee within three working days, giving the reasons for the decision.

There will be no further right of appeal for the employee following the decision of the Appeal Panel of the Governing Body. The employee will not be able to re-open the matters that have been considered by looking to invoke a different procedure, such as the Grievance Procedure.

Ill-Health Procedure

Normally ill-health will not require procedural handling. However, where ill-health appears to be a factor which adversely affects an employee's conduct, the school should seek medical advice. All schools are able to get advice from the Authority's Occupational Health Unit via the Schools' HR Advice service.

Support for Alleged Victims

Where an employee's conduct is investigated as a result of allegations by another employee of bullying, harassment, victimisation or discrimination, the school will be sensitive to both the short-term and long-term needs of the victim of the alleged behaviour. This is necessary irrespective of the outcome of any investigation and disciplinary hearing. Circumstances will vary but the school will positively monitor working relationships from the alleged victim's perspective, as well as formally or informally monitoring the conduct of the alleged perpetrator.

Referrals to Statutory Bodies

There are statutory duties on employers to refer individual cases to national bodies in the event of a dismissal or resignation when dismissal was a likely outcome. These are:

- All dismissals (or resignations) for misconduct must be reported to the Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA), where consideration will be given as to whether the employee is suitable to be working with children or in schools.

(Further guidance on ISA referrals can be found in the Safe Staffing Team "Duty To Refer" document at:

<http://connect.hertscc.gov.uk/docs/doc/d/dutytoferse09.doc>

- All teachers – not other staff – who are dismissed (or resign) because of incompetence must be reported to the General Teaching Council (GTC) for England.
General Teaching Council for England (Disciplinary Functions) (Amendment) Regulations 2003

PEASLAKE FREE SCHOOL
POLICY DOCUMENT

Policy Ratified by the Governors: 15th September 2019

Review date: Annually